Quick Reference for Consultations

Essential Oil Consultations:

For general questions regarding essential oil use in animals. These consultations are via email or phone at a minimum fee of $85 for the first 30 minutes. Billing of time after the first 30 minutes is billed at $15 per 5 minute increment, rounded up.

Full Holistic Health Consultation:

For conditions that require evaluation of an individual pet's health concern, you will need to schedule a health consultation. Previous veterinary records will be required to be forwarded to Dr. Shelton, and a detailed patient information form filled out. This will insure a thorough doctor-patient relationship, necessary for quality care of your animal friend. Health Consultations are completed by phone or email depending on Dr. Shelton's availability – and are billed at $175 initially, which covers the first hour. Additional time is billed per 5 minutes of time, rounded up. This consultation includes three follow up emails.

Urgent holistic health consultations are for cases or questions that cannot wait for a regularly scheduled consultation. For an additional $150, these consultations will generally be scheduled within 2 business days from time receipt of records, history, and payment. Please note that due to the nature of the veterinary business, this service cannot be guaranteed; however, we will provide responses to urgent matters as we can. If you do not hear back from us in a timely manner, please do seek medical attention elsewhere.

Prices are subject to change at any time.
